

RV PLUMBING COMPONENT CERTIFICATION

Who We Are

QAI is a testing, inspection, and certification body that is recognized by the regulatory authorities in Canada and the US that allow QAI to certify your recreational vehicle and trailer plumbing products before it goes to market.

What We Do

QAI helps manufacturers of recreational vehicles and trailers get their plumbing RV products certified to satisfy Canadian and US requirements.

With that service you can expect QAI to:

- Provide one point of contact throughout the certification
- Help you find trusted solutions to certify products like holding tanks, shower bases, and more...
- Help you get your product to market seamlessly with experienced staff helping every step of the way
