COMMENTARY:

Per section 1703 of the IBC, QAI is an independent third-party testing, inspection and certification agency accredited by the International Accreditation Service, Inc. (IAS) for a specific scope of products (refer to IAS PCA-118 and/or PCA-119). QAI can confirm that based on its IAS accreditation it meets IBC Section 1703.1 on Independence, Section 1703.1.2 on Equipment and Section 1703.1 on Personnel.

The intended Evaluation report is designed to meet the Performance requirements of IBC Section 1703.4 and contains all the required information to show the product, material or assembly meets the applicable code requirements.

The product is labeled per section IBC 1703 and subject to follow-up inspection per IBC 1703.6 using QAI IAS accredited ISO 17020 inspection program (refer to IAS AA-635 and/or AA-723).

For more information regarding QAI Laboratories, please visit www.qai.org.

The above is a blurred example of the QAI registered Listing mark. The Listing mark may only be used on products defined in the QAI Code Evaluation Report after the Applicant receives a Listing Letter authorizing the Applicant to use the QAI mark per the terms and conditions outlined in the QAI Listing Agreement. The 'us' indicator in the 4 o'clock position and/or the 'c' indicator in the 8 o'clock position indicates the product complies with the properties evaluated and limitations outlined in the Code Evaluation Report for the USA and/or Canadian market, respectively.

QAI CODE EVALUATION REPORT (CER) FEE STRUCTURE:

Application Fee / Deposit:	$3500 for new code evaluation report $1500 for revision to existing published report $0 for transfer of report from another accredited agency with no revisions.
Evaluation Cost:	$165 per hour This fee includes review of technical data associated with the application. QAI will typically provide a fixed rate once the scope of work is identified. The application fee is subtracted from this fee. This fee does not apply for transfer of report from another accredited agency when no revisions are made to the report.
