

MODULAR STRUCTURES

SEAMLESS SOLUTIONS FOR APPROVING YOUR MODULAR STRUCTURES

Approval of Modular Structures

QAI offers a variety of certification programs for manufacturers of all sizes and complexity of structure. Site-built structures are subject to inspection at key stages by the authority having jurisdiction. Manufacturers that opt for a certification program with QAI have a method to demonstrate compliance of their structures to the codes and regulations enforced by the authorities in Canada.

QAI is accredited by the Standards Council of Canada (SCC) to provide CSA A277 certification for the following categories:

- Modular Residential Homes
- Business Commercial Structures
- Relocatable Industrial Camps
- Equipment Shelters
- Engineered Structures

Additional certifications available:

- CSA Z240 RV Series - Recreational Vehicles
- CSA Z241 Series - Park Model Trailers
- CSA Z240 MH Series - Manufactured Homes
